SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

Monday, October 19  12:00 pm – 1:30 pm
What’s in a Name? What Difference Does It Make?
A community forum to discuss the contemporary implications of historical (and sometimes problematic) naming of buildings, monuments, mascots, stadiums, and more. Lunch will be served.
Special Events Room, 6137 McKeldin Library

Monday, October 19  4:00 pm – 6:00 pm
#ITooAmMaryland, and we belong here together
A continuation of last year’s conversation about the microaggressions* that many students face everyday on campus. This event will offer ways for the UMD community to respond to exclusivity through positive action to create a more inclusive campus community. Ice cream social to follow.
Atrium, Stamp Student Union

Tuesday, October 20  9:30 am – 12:30 pm
Trans* Advocacy Training
A primer on the fundamentals of transgender and gender variant issues, including gender theory and gender variance, cisgender privilege, and ways allies and advocates for trans* communities on campus can take action. Please register at: www.umd.edu/lgbt/rainbow.html
Special Events Room, 6137 McKeldin Library

Tuesday, October 20  10:30 am – 4:00 pm
Interrupting Sexism: A Photo Booth
An opportunity to offer your thoughts on how to address sexism on campus and beyond. Fill out a white board with your idea, slide into the photo booth and snap a picture! Images will be tweeted to #TerpsRiseAbove. Co-sponsors: CARE, DFSL, Student Affairs Diversity Advisory Council & Sex Week.
Lobby, Stamp Student Union

Tuesday, October 20  4:30 pm – 6:00pm
An Afternoon Conversation with Alicia Garza, co-creator of #BlackLivesMatter
Alicia Garza discusses the civil rights movement of the 21st century with Professor Nancy Mirabal, American Studies.
Grand Ballroom, Stamp Student Union

Wednesday, October 21  10:30 am – 11:45 am
Self Care & Healing in Social Justice Movements
An intimate discussion with Alicia Garza about how to sustain yourself and honor your personal needs while engaged in social justice work. Student activists are especially encouraged to attend. Registration required at diversity.umd.edu/riaseabove2016
David C. Driskell Center, Cole Student Activities Building

Wednesday, October 21  12:00 pm – 1:30pm
Who gets to stay & Who is told to leave?: Immigration Stories from Our Community
Roundtable discussions, in response to videotaped interviews of UMD faculty, staff and students, about ways to combat xenophobia in our campus community. Lunch will be served.
Special Events Room, 6137 McKeldin Library

Thursday, October 22  2:30 pm – 4:00 pm
Radical Access, Disability Justice, & Awkward Ableism
An interactive workshop to identify ways to interrupt ableism and the system of discrimination against people with disabilities.
Special Events Room, 6137 McKeldin Library

Thursday, October 22  7:00 pm – 9:00 pm
Driskell After Dark: Resistance, Hope, & Justice in Art, Song, & Poetry
Various performances, by people from the university community, which resist oppression, prejudice, and discrimination and forge a path towards justice.
David C. Driskell Center, Cole Student Activities Building

---

* According to Sue et al. (2007), a microaggression is a brief, everyday verbal or behavioral response that, either intentionally or unintentionally, communicates a negative or derogatory slight or insult toward a marginalized group.